Collective Bargaining with NAEN Experts!

The 51st Annual Conference of the North American Association of Educational Negotiations will bring together more than 100 educational negotiations and employee relations specialists from all over the United States and Canada to learn, participate, and network for three and one-half days of professional development in educational negotiations and employee relations. This conference offers the best opportunity to gain new insights, sharpen your negotiation skills, network with your peers, and share the best practices with your colleagues.

This conference is recommended for all education based management professions who share an interest in employee and labor relations and who are committed to professional development, including school board members, superintendents, school attorneys, negotiators, building administrators, Principals, pupil service personnel, HR directors, and labor specialists. If you have any questions regarding this conference, please send us an email at execdir@naen.org. We hope you will be able to join us in Scottsdale for this most informative conference for professional and personal advancement.

"Superb conference. Lots of variety in workshops, great keynote speakers, fun social events. Very well planned and organized.

"One of the very best things about this conference is the tone - warm, friendly, focused, lots of interaction.

Receive a Certificate of Completion to assist you with your professional development requirements!
